VIRGINIA

April 23rd from 2-4pm

Thrive Virginia is marking Sexual Assault Awareness Month with an art installation at the Quinton Community Center in New Kent (3041 New Kent Highway).

The exhibit is aimed at breaking down the myths and victim-blaming belief that what someone wears encourages or asks for an assault. Victims of sexual violence are often

He gets along great with other dogs and seems fine with cats. His previous owner said he does well with children, is housebroken, and crate trained.
