Regional Animal Shelter

Featured Pets

“Hershey” is a handsome male Pit Bull Terrier mix that’s about 3-4 years old and weighs 75lbs. He came to the Shelter after he was found at someone’s home. He is a good boy that knows how to sit and loves ear scratches!

“Gizmo” is a happy neutered male Lab mix that’s 8 months old and weighs 70lbs. He was surrendered to the Shelter because his owner could no longer care for him. He’s a sweet boy that loves other pets and snuggles! “Gizmo” is up to date on his vaccines and on monthly heartworm prevention. He is also housebroken, and crate trained.

February is Pucker Up for Pets Month!

Get Involved in Government

Help Foster a Safe Community

If you live in a subdivision, see if they have an active Neighborhood Watch program. If not, consider starting one! Contact the Sheriff's Office for more information - 804-769-0999. For those who live in more open areas, devise ways to check on your neighbors, especially during inclement weather incidents. You can also educate yourself on ways to spot suspicious activity by visiting the Department of Homeland Security's See Something Say Something website. Local government and citizens working together can help keep King William County a safe and pleasant place to live!
