Regional Animal Shelter Featured Pets

"Beso" is a handsome male Pit Bull that's about 1 year old and weighs 65lbs. He was surrendered to the Shelter because his owner could not care for him. He's a lovely guy that loves to play. He would love a big fenced in yard for him to run and have fun in!

"Cookie" is a lovely female Hound that's about 5-6 years old and weighs about 40lbs. She came to the Shelter after she was found at someone's home. She's a sweet girl that gets along fine with other pets.

February is Pucker Up for Pets Month!

Powerful Nor'easter To Impact The East Coast

A powerful winter storm will develop off the Mid-Atlantic Coast today before racing northward and impacting areas along the coast from the Mid-Atlantic to Northeast and New England this afternoon through Sunday. Numerous hazards are likely from heavy snow, with significant accumulations to gusty winds and coastal issues. The combination of the snow and wind will lead to blizzard conditions.

Governor Youngkin Declares State of Emergency in Advance of Nor'easter Expected To Arrive Friday
